

THE ENGLISH SCHOOL of ULAANBAATAR

Primary Teacher (Year 2 or Year 3) The English School of Ulaanbaatar (ESU)

Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia

Start Date: August 2026 or sooner

The English School of Ulaanbaatar (ESU) is seeking an outstanding Primary Teacher (Year 2 or Year 3) to join our founding team as we establish a new benchmark for British international education in Mongolia.

Set against the open landscapes of Green Hill, Yarmag, ESU offers a distinctive learning environment combining space, fresh air, and a strong sense of community. Our vision is to deliver an ambitious, values-driven education rooted in the English National Curriculum, enriched by Mongolian heritage and global perspectives.

This is a rare opportunity to shape a school from its foundation, working alongside experienced international educators to build a truly exceptional Primary provision.

About ESU

At ESU, we are committed to:

- Delivering a high-quality British education with academic rigour and breadth
- Fostering confidence, curiosity, and character in every child
- Creating a culture of kindness, respect, and aspiration
- Supporting bilingual development, including Mongolian language, culture, and identity
- Embedding best practice aligned with BSO (British Schools Overseas) standards

Our Primary School will follow the English National Curriculum, enhanced by:

- Inquiry-led and project-based learning
- Strong foundations in English, Mathematics, and Science
- A rich wider curriculum including Humanities, PSHE, Creative Arts, and Physical Education
- Assessment through a combination of teacher assessment, SATs-style benchmarks, and GL CAT4 baseline testing

The Role

We are looking for an exceptional classroom practitioner who:

- Delivers engaging, well-structured lessons aligned with the English National Curriculum
- Creates a positive, inclusive, and stimulating classroom environment

THE ENGLISH SCHOOL of ULAANBAATAR

- Supports pupils in developing independence, resilience, and a love of learning
- Uses assessment effectively to inform teaching and track progress
- Contributes to the wider life of the school, including clubs, trips, and house activities
- Plays an active role in shaping the ethos and development of a new school

The Ideal Candidate

You will:

- Hold a recognised teaching qualification (e.g. PGCE, QTS or equivalent)
- Have experience teaching in Key Stage 1 or Key Stage 2 (Year 2 or Year 3 preferred)
- Demonstrate strong knowledge of the English National Curriculum
- Be an excellent communicator with high standards of written and spoken English
- Show a commitment to pastoral care and whole-child development
- Be adaptable, reflective, and excited by the opportunity to build something new
- International school experience is desirable, but not essential

What We Offer

- A competitive international salary and benefits package
- Housing allowance and annual flights
- A supportive, collaborative, and forward-thinking leadership team
- Opportunities for professional growth and leadership development
- The chance to play a founding role in an ambitious and growing school
- A unique lifestyle experience in one of Asia's most dynamic and culturally rich countries

Safeguarding

The English School of Ulaanbaatar is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. All appointments will be subject to rigorous safeguarding checks, including references and criminal background clearance.

How to Apply

Please submit:

- A current and up-to-date CV
- A brief letter of application outlining your suitability for the role

Applications should be sent to: hr@esu.edu.mn
