

On Hing Silver Bowl, Burmese Military Presentation Bowl Headline Hotlotz's Fine Silver Sale of The Esme Parish Collection

- A Chinese export silver dragon bowl, a Chinese export silver dragon mug and a Japanese export silver tea service by Arthur & Bond round out the lineup

SINGAPORE, 24 SEPTEMBER 2026 – Hotlotz has opened bidding in its 'Fine Silver: The Esme Parish Collection,' a single-owner auction of 213 lots spanning English Georgian, Victorian and later silver to rare Chinese export, Japanese, Burmese and Indian pieces.

The sale offers a collection built over Esme Parish's 40-year career in the silver trade.

Top lots include a fine and large Chinese export silver bowl by On Hing, chased and pierced with eight panels of dragons, birds and figures before pagodas, carrying an estimate of S$10,000 to S$15,000, and a Burmese presentation silver bowl inscribed to Major-General John Henry Keith Stewart by the officers of the 39th Garhwal Rifles in 1898.

Further highlights include a Chinese export silver dragon bowl by Luen Wo of Shanghai with a green glass liner, a Chinese export silver dragon mug by Sun Shing with a dragon handle, and a Japanese export three-piece silver tea service by Arthur & Bond of Yokohama, chased with chrysanthemums.

Hotlotz operates timed, online-only auctions. Bidding closes Sunday 4 October 2026, from 6pm onwards. All items are authenticated and available to view in the Hotlotz Saleroom.
