

MR. KUNLE ADENIYI

Mr. Kunle Adeniyi is the Representative for Sri Lanka and Country Director for the Maldives.

Prior to this assignment, Mr. Adeniyi served as Representative of UNFPA in The Gambia.

Mr. Adeniyi brings nearly two decades of experience in sexual and reproductive health and rights, human rights, public health, public policy and law.

His journey into development started as a Senior Programme Officer for Nigeria's National Agency for the Control of HIV & AIDS (NACA), where he also served as the Head of Legal and Human Rights. He served as the Special Assistant and Head of the Project Implementation Secretariat in Nigeria's Ministry of Health. He was also the Technical Lead for the World Bank Credit Programme and the Global Fund HIV Grants in Nigeria.

Mr. Adeniyi is an Alumnus of the John Hopkins Centre for Communication Programs Baltimore (Maryland USA) and holds an MBA, a LLM and a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) Degree.