

MR. RATHIKA DE SILVA

Rathika de Silva is the Executive Director of the UN Global Compact Network Sri Lanka and a pioneering figure in corporate sustainability, with over two decades of regional and international experience. He has led and contributed to several high-impact management projects across Bangladesh, India, Thailand, Indonesia, and Vietnam, positioning him as a strong strategist and visionary leader in the field.

An expert in sustainability reporting and business transformation, Rathika has a proven track record of driving inclusive growth and responsible business practices. Before his current role, He served as the Country Head for DNV GL Business Assurance (Pvt) Ltd, Sri Lanka, and as Vice President - Sustainable Development at Holcim Sri Lanka.

Rathika is an alumna of the University of Louisiana (USA), the University of Cambridge (UK), and the University of St. Gallen (Switzerland).