

TOEFL Vocabulary Word List

Here is a curated list of the top 300 essential TOEFL words by Yocket Prep experts, complete with meanings and usage examples to help you learn faster, smarter, and stress-free.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
1	Abate	To become less intense or widespread.	The storm abated by morning, leaving calm skies.
2	Aberration	A departure from what is normal or expected.	His poor test score was an aberration; he is usually a top student.
3	Abhor	To regard with disgust and hatred.	She abhors any form of cruelty to animals.
4	Abridge	To shorten (a text, film, etc.) without losing the sense.	The audiobook is an abridged version of the 800-page novel.
5	Abscond	To leave hurriedly and secretly, typically to avoid detection.	The thief absconded with the jewels before the police arrived.
6	Abundant	Existing or available in large quantities.	The region has abundant natural resources.
7	Accentuate	To make more noticeable or prominent.	The lighting accentuated the sharp lines of the sculpture.
8	Accolade	An award or privilege granted as a special honor.	Winning the championship was the highest accolade of her career.

Boost your TOEFL prep with free mocks, performance review, and a personalised study plan on Yocket Prep.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
9	Accumulate	To gather or increase gradually over time.	Dust tends to accumulate in unused rooms.
10	Acerbic	Sharp and forthright in speech or tone.	Her acerbic wit often intimidated people.
11	Acquiesce	To accept something reluctantly but without protest.	With a sigh, he acquiesced to their demands.
12	Acrimony	Bitterness or ill feeling.	The divorce was settled with surprising speed and without acrimony.
13	Adept	Very skilled or proficient at something.	She is adept at solving complex mathematical problems.
14	Adequate	Satisfactory or acceptable in quality or quantity.	The hotel's facilities were adequate for our short stay.
15	Adhere	To stick fast to a surface or substance.	The old stamp adhered firmly to the envelope.
16	Adjacent	Next to or adjoining something else.	The cafe is adjacent to the bookstore.
17	Admonish	To warn or reprimand someone firmly.	The coach admonished the team for their lack of effort.
18	Adroit	Clever or skillful in using the hands or mind.	His adroit handling of the crisis prevented a disaster.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
19	Adulation	Excessive admiration or praise.	The young star was overwhelmed by the adulation of her fans.
20	Adverse	Preventing success or development; harmful.	The project was delayed by adverse weather conditions.
21	Advocate (v)	To publicly recommend or support.	She advocates for stricter environmental laws.
22	Aesthetic	Concerned with beauty or the appreciation of beauty.	The building's design has a pleasing aesthetic quality.
23	Affable	Friendly, good-natured, and easy to talk to.	He was an affable host, making everyone feel welcome.
24	Affluent	Having a great deal of money; wealthy.	They live in an affluent suburb of the city.
25	Aggrandize	To increase the power, status, or wealth of.	The biography was criticized for seeking to aggrandize the dictator's legacy.
26	Alacrity	Brisk and cheerful readiness.	She accepted the challenge with alacrity.
27	Alienate	To cause someone to feel isolated or estranged.	His rude comments alienated many of his colleagues.
28	Alleviate	To make (suffering, deficiency, or a problem) less severe.	This medication helps alleviate the symptoms.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
29	Allure	The quality of being powerfully and mysteriously attractive.	The allure of the unknown drew the explorers onward.
30	Ambiguous	Open to more than one interpretation; unclear.	His reply was ambiguous and didn't answer the question.
31	Ambivalent	Having mixed feelings or contradictory ideas.	She felt ambivalent about the job offer.
32	Ameliorate	To make (something bad or unsatisfactory) better.	The new policy aims to ameliorate poverty in the region.
33	Amicable	Characterized by friendliness and absence of discord.	They reached an amicable divorce settlement.
34	Ample	Enough or more than enough; plentiful.	We have ample time to finish the work.
35	Anachronism	A thing belonging to a period other than the one in which it exists.	The knight in shining armor was an anachronism in the modern city.
36	Analogous	Comparable in certain respects.	The heart's function is analogous to that of a pump.
37	Anarchy	A state of disorder due to absence of authority.	The collapse of the government led to a period of anarchy.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
38	Anomaly	Something that deviates from what is standard or expected.	The test results showed an anomaly that required further study.
39	Antagonize	To cause someone to become hostile.	His constant criticism began to antagonize the team.
40	Antipathy	A deep-seated feeling of dislike; aversion.	She felt a strong antipathy towards the proposed law.
41	Apathy	Lack of interest, enthusiasm, or concern.	Voter apathy led to a very low turnout.
42	Apprehensive	Anxious or fearful that something bad will happen.	She was apprehensive about the upcoming surgery.
43	Arbitrary	Based on random choice or personal whim, not reason.	The arbitrary decision made no sense to anyone.
44	Arcane	Understood by few; mysterious or secret.	The ritual involved some arcane symbols.
45	Arduous	Involving or requiring strenuous effort; difficult.	The arduous journey through the mountains took weeks.
46	Articulate (adj)	Having or showing the ability to speak fluently.	She was remarkably articulate for a seven-year-old.
47	Ascertain	To find (something) out for certain.	We need to ascertain the facts before making a decision.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
48	Ascetic	Characterized by severe self-discipline and abstention from indulgence.	The monk led an ascetic life of prayer and fasting.
49	Assiduous	Showing great care and perseverance.	She was assiduous in her preparation for the exam.
50	Assuage	To make an unpleasant feeling less intense.	The apology did little to assuage her anger.
51	Astute	Having or showing an ability to accurately assess situations.	An astute investor, he sold his stocks before the crash.
52	Atrophy	To gradually decline in effectiveness due to underuse.	Muscles can atrophy if they are not used.
53	Audacious	Showing a willingness to take surprisingly bold risks.	The general made an audacious plan to attack at dawn.
54	Austere	Severe or strict in manner, attitude, or appearance.	The room was furnished in an austere style.
55	Avarice	Extreme greed for wealth or material gain.	The tale is a warning against avarice.
56	Axiomatic	Self-evident or unquestionable.	It is axiomatic that a whole is greater than any of its parts.
57	Banal	Lacking in originality; obvious and boring.	His comments were banal and uninteresting.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
58	Belie	To fail to give a true impression of.	His calm smile belied the anxiety he felt inside.
59	Benefactor	A person who gives money or other help to a person or cause.	An anonymous benefactor donated a million dollars.
60	Beneficial	Favorable or advantageous; resulting in good.	Sunshine is beneficial to most plants.
61	Benevolent	Well meaning and kindly.	He was a benevolent leader, always thinking of his people.
62	Berate	To scold or criticize angrily.	The teacher berated the student for cheating.
63	Bias	Prejudice in favor of or against something.	The article showed a clear political bias.
64	Bolster	To support or strengthen.	He used facts to bolster his argument.
65	Bombastic	High-sounding but with little meaning; inflated.	The politician's bombastic speech failed to impress.
66	Brevity	Concise and exact use of words.	The report was praised for its brevity and clarity.
67	Cacophony	A harsh, discordant mixture of sounds.	A cacophony of car horns filled the city street.
68	Candid	Truthful and straightforward; frank.	I appreciate your candid feedback.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
69	Capricious	Given to sudden and unaccountable changes of mood.	The capricious weather made planning the picnic impossible.
70	Castigate	To reprimand (someone) severely.	The newspaper editorial castigated the mayor for his inaction.
71	Catalyst	A person or thing that precipitates an event.	Her speech acted as a catalyst for political change.
72	Caustic	Sarcastic in a scathing and bitter way.	His caustic remarks hurt her feelings.
73	Censure	To express severe disapproval of.	The committee voted to censure the senator for misconduct.
74	Chicanery	The use of trickery to achieve a goal.	The election was marred by allegations of chicanery.
75	Chronology	The arrangement of events in order of occurrence.	The book provides a chronology of the king's reign.
76	Circumspect	Wary and unwilling to take risks.	Investors should be circumspect when markets are volatile.
77	Clamor	A loud and confused noise, especially of people shouting.	The clamor of the crowd could be heard for blocks.
78	Clarify	To make a statement or situation less confused.	Could you clarify your second point, please?

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
79	Coalesce	To come together to form one mass or whole.	The factions coalesced into a single, powerful union.
80	Coerce	To persuade an unwilling person via force or threats.	He claimed he was coerced into signing the confession.
81	Cogent	Clear, logical, and convincing.	She presented a cogent argument for the new policy.
82	Coherent	Logical and consistent; forming a unified whole.	She was too upset to give a coherent account of the accident.
83	Coincide	To occur at the same time.	The festival coincides with the lunar new year.
84	Collaborate	To work jointly on an activity or project.	The two artists collaborated on the mural.
85	Commensurate	Corresponding in size or degree; in proportion.	The salary should be commensurate with experience.
86	Complacent	Showing smug satisfaction with oneself.	We cannot afford to be complacent about the competition.
87	Complement	To add to something in a way that enhances it.	The wine complements the cheese perfectly.
88	Comprehensive	Complete; including all or nearly all aspects.	The agency provides comprehensive healthcare services.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
89	Concede	To admit that something is true or valid.	He was forced to concede that he had made a mistake.
90	Conciliatory	Intended or likely to placate or pacify.	He made conciliatory gestures to end the dispute.
91	Concur	To be of the same opinion; agree.	The judges all concurred with the final decision.
92	Condone	To accept or allow behavior that is considered wrong.	The school does not condone bullying of any kind.
93	Conducive	Making a certain situation or outcome likely.	A quiet room is conducive to studying.
94	Conflagration	A large, destructive fire.	The historic district was destroyed in the conflagration.
95	Conform	To comply with rules, standards, or laws.	All products must conform to safety regulations.
96	Confound	To cause surprise or confusion.	The results of the experiment confounded the scientists.
97	Congenial	Pleasant because of personality, qualities, or interests.	She found the work atmosphere very congenial.
98	Conglomerate	A thing consisting of a number of different parts.	The media conglomerate owns several television networks.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
99	Conjecture	An opinion formed on incomplete information.	His conclusion was based on conjecture, not fact.
100	Connoisseur	An expert judge in matters of taste.	He is a connoisseur of fine wines.
101	Consecutive	Following continuously; in unbroken sequence.	It snowed for three consecutive days.
102	Consensus	A general agreement.	The committee reached a consensus on the proposal.
103	Consequently	As a result; therefore.	He didn't study and, consequently, failed the exam.
104	Conspicuous	Standing out so as to be clearly visible.	She felt conspicuous in her bright red dress.
105	Constituent	A part of a whole.	Analyze the constituent parts of the argument.
106	Constrain	To compel or force into a particular course of action.	Budgets constrain what we can spend.
107	Construe	To interpret (a word or action) in a particular way.	His silence could be construed as agreement.
108	Consummate (adj)	Showing great skill and flair.	She is a consummate professional.
109	Contempt	The feeling that a person is beneath consideration.	He looked at the liar with utter contempt.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
110	Contentious	Causing or likely to cause an argument.	The contentious issue divided the community.
111	Contiguous	Sharing a common border; touching.	The 48 contiguous states of the USA.
112	Contingent	Dependent on something uncertain.	Our plans are contingent on the weather.
113	Contradict	To deny the truth of a statement by asserting the opposite.	The witness's story contradicted the evidence.
114	Contrive	To create or bring about by deliberate use of skill.	She contrived a way to meet him accidentally.
115	Conundrum	A confusing and difficult problem or question.	The ethical conundrum had no easy answer.
116	Converge	To come together from different directions.	The roads converge in the town center.
117	Convey	To transport or communicate.	The artist's work conveys a sense of deep sadness.
118	Copious	Abundant in supply or quantity.	She took copious notes during the lecture.
119	Corroborate	To confirm or give support to a statement or theory.	New evidence corroborated the witness's account.
120	Credible	Able to be believed; convincing.	He offered a credible explanation for his absence.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
121	Credulous	Having too great a readiness to believe things.	Only the most credulous person would believe that story.
122	Criterion	A principle or standard by which something is judged.	The main criterion for selection is academic merit.
123	Critique	A detailed analysis and assessment.	She wrote a sharp critique of the proposed policy.
124	Crucial	Decisive or critical, especially in the success of something.	This is a crucial stage in the project.
125	Culpable	Deserving blame.	The judge found him culpable of negligence.
126	Cursory	Hasty and therefore not thorough.	He gave the report a cursory glance.
127	Curtail	To reduce in extent or quantity.	The government decided to curtail public spending.
128	Dearth	A scarcity or lack of something.	There is a dearth of affordable housing in the city.
129	Debilitate	To make someone weak and infirm.	A long illness can debilitate even a strong person.
130	Decorous	In keeping with good taste and propriety.	The guests maintained a decorous silence.
131	Decry	To publicly denounce.	He decried the lack of funding for the arts.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
132	Deference	Humble submission and respect.	He treated his elders with great deference.
133	Deficient	Lacking in some necessary quality or element.	The soil is deficient in nitrogen.
134	Definitive	Of the most authoritative; conclusive.	This is the definitive guide to the subject.
135	Defunct	No longer existing or functioning.	He worked for a now-defunct newspaper.
136	Delegate (v)	To entrust a task or responsibility to another person.	A good manager knows how to delegate effectively.
137	Deleterious	Causing harm or damage.	The drug has deleterious side effects.
138	Delineate	To describe or portray precisely.	The report clearly delineates the steps required.
139	Demagogue	A political leader who seeks support by appealing to prejudices.	The demagogue used fear to gain power.
140	Demur	To raise doubts or objections.	She demurred at the suggestion that she was responsible.
141	Denigrate	To criticize unfairly; disparage.	He was accused of trying to denigrate his opponent.
142	Deplete	To use up the supply or resources of.	Overfishing has depleted the stock of cod.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
143	Deplore	To feel or express strong disapproval of.	We deplore all acts of violence.
144	Depravity	Moral corruption; wickedness.	The novel explores the depths of human depravity.
145	Deride	To express contempt for; ridicule.	His theories were derided by his peers.
146	Derive	To obtain something from a source.	The word is derived from ancient Greek.
147	Desiccate	To remove the moisture from something.	The desiccated plants crumbled to dust.
148	Desultory	Lacking a plan, purpose, or enthusiasm.	They made a desultory attempt to clean the room.
149	Deter	To discourage someone from doing something.	High fines are meant to deter illegal parking.
150	Detrimental	Tending to cause harm.	Smoking is detrimental to your health.
151	Deviate	To depart from an established course.	Please do not deviate from the agreed-upon plan.
152	Diatribes	A forceful and bitter verbal attack.	He launched into a long diatribe against the management.
153	Dichotomy	A division or contrast between two things.	The dichotomy between good and evil.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
154	Diffident	Modest or shy due to a lack of self-confidence.	He was diffident about speaking in public.
155	Dilapidated	In a state of disrepair or ruin.	They bought a dilapidated old house and renovated it.
156	Dilatory	Slow to act; intended to cause delay.	The senator used dilatory tactics to stall the bill.
157	Dilettante	A person who cultivates an area superficially.	He was a dilettante in music, playing several instruments poorly.
158	Discern	To perceive or recognize something.	It was hard to discern his true feelings.
159	Discrepancy	A lack of compatibility or similarity.	There is a discrepancy between the two accounts.
160	Discrete	Individually separate and distinct.	The change happened in three discrete stages.
161	Discretion	The quality of behaving to avoid offense.	The use of the funds is at the manager's discretion.
162	Disingenuous	Not candid or sincere, typically by pretending ignorance.	His apology seemed disingenuous.
163	Disinterested	Not influenced by personal involvement; unbiased.	We need a disinterested third party to mediate.
164	Dismissive	Feeling that something is unworthy of consideration.	He was dismissive of her concerns.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
165	Disparage	To regard or represent as being of little worth.	He never missed an opportunity to disparage his rivals.
166	Disparate	Essentially different in kind; not comparable.	They came from disparate backgrounds.
167	Disseminate	To spread information widely.	The organization works to disseminate knowledge.
168	Dissident	A person who opposes official policy.	Political dissidents were imprisoned.
169	Dissipate	To disperse or scatter.	The fog began to dissipate as the sun rose.
170	Dissonance	A lack of harmony among musical notes; incongruity.	There is a dissonance between his words and his actions.
171	Distend	To swell or cause to swell from internal pressure.	The balloon distended as it filled with air.
172	Distinguish	To recognize or treat as different.	It's hard to distinguish the twins from each other.
173	Divergent	Tending to be different or develop in different directions.	They held divergent opinions on the subject.
174	Divulge	To make known private or sensitive information.	He refused to divulge the source of his information.
175	Docile	Ready to accept control or instruction; submissive.	The horse was remarkably docile.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
176	Dogmatic	Inclined to lay down principles as incontrovertibly true.	His dogmatic approach stifled discussion.
177	Duplicity	Deceitfulness; double-dealing.	She discovered his duplicity when she found the hidden letters.
178	Ebullient	Cheerful and full of energy.	She was in an ebullient mood after the win.
179	Eclectic	Deriving ideas, style, or taste from a broad range of sources.	He has eclectic tastes in music.
180	Efficacy	The ability to produce a desired or intended result.	The efficacy of the new drug is still being tested.
181	Egregious	Outstandingly bad; shocking.	An egregious error in judgment.
182	Elaborate (v)	To develop or present in detail.	Could you elaborate on your first point?
183	Elicit	To evoke or draw out a response.	The question elicited a strong reaction from the audience.
184	Eloquent	Fluent or persuasive in speaking or writing.	He gave an eloquent speech in defense of freedom.
185	Elucidate	To make clear; explain.	The diagram helped to elucidate the complex process.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
186	Elusive	Difficult to find, catch, or achieve.	The elusive butterfly finally landed on a flower.
187	Embellish	To make a story more interesting by adding details.	He tends to embellish his tales of travel.
188	Eminent	Famous and respected within a particular sphere.	An eminent historian.
189	Empathy	The ability to understand the feelings of another.	The counselor showed great empathy.
190	Empirical	Based on observation or experience rather than theory.	They gathered empirical evidence to support their claim.
191	Emulate	To match or surpass a person or achievement.	Young actors often try to emulate their idols.
192	Enervate	To cause someone to feel drained of energy.	The hot, humid climate enervated him.
193	Engender	To cause or give rise to a feeling or situation.	His comments engendered a lot of anger.
194	Enhance	To intensify, increase, or improve the quality of.	The spices enhanced the flavor of the dish.
195	Enigma	A person or thing that is mysterious or difficult to understand.	The artist remains an enigma.
196	Enmity	The state or feeling of being actively opposed.	There was deep enmity between the two families.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
197	Enshrine	To preserve a right, tradition, or idea in a form that ensures it is protected.	The right to free speech is enshrined in the constitution.
198	Ephemeral	Lasting for a very short time.	The ephemeral beauty of cherry blossoms.
199	Epitome	A perfect example of a particular quality or type.	She is the epitome of grace under pressure.
200	Equanimity	Mental calmness, especially in a difficult situation.	He accepted the news with surprising equanimity.
201	Equitable	Fair and impartial.	An equitable distribution of resources.
202	Equivocal	Open to more than one interpretation; ambiguous.	His answer was equivocal and unsatisfying.
203	Erratic	Not even or regular in pattern or movement.	The bus service is erratic on weekends.
204	Erudite	Having or showing great knowledge or learning.	An erudite scholar.
205	Esoteric	Intended for or understood by only a small number of people.	The discussion focused on esoteric philosophical points.
206	Espouse	To adopt or support a cause, belief, or way of life.	She espoused the principles of non-violence.
207	Ethereal	Extremely delicate and light in a way that seems not of this world.	The singer's voice had an ethereal quality.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
208	Etymology	The study of the origin of words.	The etymology of the word "philosophy" is Greek.
209	Eulogy	A speech or piece of writing that praises someone highly.	He delivered a moving eulogy at the funeral.
210	Euphemism	A mild or indirect word substituted for one considered harsh.	"Passed away" is a euphemism for "died."
211	Euphoria	A feeling of intense excitement and happiness.	She felt a wave of euphoria upon hearing the news.
212	Evade	To escape or avoid, especially by cleverness or trickery.	The fugitive managed to evade the police for months.
213	Evince	To reveal the presence of a quality or feeling.	His smile evinced his satisfaction.
214	Evoke	To bring or recall to the conscious mind.	The song evoked memories of her childhood.
215	Exacerbate	To make a problem, bad situation, or negative feeling worse.	His comments only exacerbated the conflict.
216	Exacting	Making great demands on one's skill, attention, or resources.	The work is exacting and requires great precision.
217	Exalt	To hold in very high regard; think or speak very highly of.	The poet was exalted as a national treasure.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
218	Exasperate	To irritate intensely; infuriate.	Her constant questions began to exasperate him.
219	Exemplary	Serving as a desirable model; representing the best of its kind.	His conduct was exemplary.
220	Exhaustive	Including or considering all elements or aspects; fully comprehensive.	They conducted an exhaustive search.
221	Exonerate	To absolve someone from blame for a fault or wrongdoing.	New evidence exonerated the prisoner.
222	Expedient (adj)	Convenient and practical, possibly improper or immoral.	It is expedient to delay the announcement.
223	Expedite	To make an action or process happen sooner.	We can expedite the delivery for an extra fee.
224	Explicit	Stated clearly and in detail, leaving no room for confusion.	He gave explicit instructions.
225	Extol	To praise enthusiastically.	The coach extolled the team's effort.
226	Extraneous	Irrelevant or unrelated to the subject being dealt with.	Please avoid extraneous details in your report.
227	Extrapolate	To extend the application of a method to unknown situations.	We can extrapolate from the data to predict future trends.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
228	Extricate	To free someone from a constraint or difficulty.	He managed to extricate himself from the awkward situation.
229	Exuberant	Filled with lively energy and excitement.	Exuberant crowds celebrated the victory.
230	Fabricate	To invent or concoct something, typically with deceitful intent.	He fabricated an excuse for being late.
231	Facetious	Treating serious issues with deliberately inappropriate humor.	He was being facetious when he said the office was a spa.
232	Facilitate	To make an action or process easier.	The new software will facilitate data analysis.
233	Fallacious	Based on a mistaken belief.	His argument was fallacious.
234	Fastidious	Very attentive to and concerned about accuracy and detail.	He is fastidious about his appearance.
235	Fathom	To understand a difficult problem after much thought.	I couldn't fathom why he had lied.
236	Feasible	Possible to do easily or conveniently.	Is it feasible to finish by Friday?
237	Felicitous	Well chosen or suited to the circumstances.	A felicitous turn of phrase.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
238	Ferret (v)	To search tenaciously for and find something.	She ferreted out the truth from the documents.
239	Fervent	Having or displaying a passionate intensity.	A fervent supporter of human rights.
240	Fickle	Changing frequently, especially as regards one's loyalties.	The weather here is notoriously fickle.
241	Fidelity	Faithfulness to a person, cause, or belief.	Fidelity is important in a marriage.
242	Figurative	Departing from a literal use of words; metaphorical.	In a figurative sense, he was drowning in paperwork.
243	Fiscal	Relating to government revenue, especially taxes.	The government's fiscal policy.
244	Flabbergasted	Extremely surprised or shocked.	I was flabbergasted by the news.
245	Flagrant	Conspicuously or obviously offensive.	A flagrant violation of the rules.
246	Fledgling	New and inexperienced.	A fledgling democracy.
247	Florid	Having a red or flushed complexion; excessively intricate.	Florid prose filled with elaborate metaphors.
248	Flout	To openly disregard a rule or convention.	They flouted the building regulations.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
249	Fluctuate	To rise and fall irregularly in number or amount.	Prices fluctuate with market demand.
250	Foment	To instigate or stir up undesirable sentiment.	He was accused of fomenting unrest.
251	Forbearance	Patient self-control; restraint and tolerance.	She showed great forbearance during the long delay.
252	Forestall	To prevent or anticipate an event by taking advance action.	We took steps to forestall a crisis.
253	Forthright	Direct and outspoken; straightforward.	She was forthright in her criticism.
254	Fortuitous	Happening by chance rather than intention.	A fortuitous meeting led to a new job.
255	Fractionous	Irritable and quarrelsome.	The fractionous child needed a nap.
256	Frivolous	Not having any serious purpose or value.	A frivolous lawsuit.
257	Frugal	Sparing or economical with regard to money or food.	They lead a simple, frugal life.
258	Futile	Incapable of producing any useful result; pointless.	A futile attempt to change his mind.
259	Gainsay	To deny or contradict a fact or statement.	No one can gainsay the evidence.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
260	Galvanize	To shock or excite into taking action.	The disaster galvanized the community into action.
261	Garner	To gather or collect something.	She garnered support for her proposal.
262	Garrulous	Excessively talkative, especially on trivial matters.	A garrulous taxi driver.
263	Genre	A style or category of art, music, or literature.	My favorite film genre is science fiction.
264	Germane	Relevant to a subject under consideration.	That point is not germane to our discussion.
265	Glib	Fluent but insincere and shallow.	He was glib and charming, but untrustworthy.
266	Gregarious	Fond of company; sociable.	She is very gregarious and loves parties.
267	Guile	Sly or cunning intelligence.	He used guile and trickery to achieve his aims.
268	Gullible	Easily persuaded to believe something; credulous.	He was gullible enough to believe the con artist.
269	Hackneyed	Lacking significance through having been overused.	A hackneyed plot device.
270	Harangue (n)	A lengthy and aggressive speech.	He delivered a harangue about laziness.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
271	Harbinger	A person or thing that announces or signals the approach of another.	The first robin is a harbinger of spring.
272	Haughty	Arrogantly superior and disdainful.	A haughty aristocrat.
273	Hedonist	A person who believes pleasure is the most important thing in life.	As a hedonist, he lived for good food and fine wine.
274	Hegemony	Leadership or dominance, especially by one country over others.	The cultural hegemony of Hollywood.
275	Heresy	Belief or opinion contrary to orthodox religious doctrine.	His views were denounced as heresy.
276	Hiatus	A pause or gap in a sequence, series, or process.	The band went on hiatus for two years.
277	Hierarchy	A system in which members are ranked according to status.	The corporate hierarchy.
278	Hypothesis	A supposition made as a starting point for further investigation.	His hypothesis was proven correct.
279	Iconoclast	A person who attacks cherished beliefs or institutions.	A cultural iconoclast.
280	Idiosyncrasy	A mode of behavior peculiar to an individual.	One of his idiosyncrasies is eating pizza with a fork.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
281	Idyllic	Extremely happy, peaceful, or picturesque.	An idyllic country cottage.
282	Ignominious	Deserving or causing public disgrace or shame.	An ignominious defeat.
283	Illicit	Forbidden by law, rules, or custom.	Illicit drug trade.
284	Immutable	Unchanging over time or unable to be changed.	The immutable laws of physics.
285	Impair	To weaken or damage something.	Loud noise can impair your hearing.
286	Impartial	Treating all rivals or disputants equally; fair.	An impartial judge.
287	Impede	To delay or prevent by obstructing them.	Deep mud impeded our progress.
288	Impenetrable	Impossible to pass through or understand.	Impenetrable jargon.
289	Imperative	Of vital importance; crucial.	It is imperative that we act now.
290	Imperious	Arrogant and domineering.	An imperious manner.
291	Impertinent	Not showing proper respect; rude.	An impertinent question.
292	Impervious	Not allowing fluid to pass through; unable to be affected by.	He was impervious to criticism.

Sr No	Word	Definition	Example Sentence
293	Impetuous	Acting or done quickly and without thought.	An impetuous decision.
294	Implacable	Unable to be appeased or pacified.	Implacable enemies.
295	Implication	The conclusion that can be drawn from something.	The implication of his statement was clear.
296	Implicit	Implied though not plainly expressed.	Implicit criticism.
297	Implore	To beg someone earnestly or desperately.	She implored him to stay.
298	Importune	To ask persistently or pressingly.	He importuned her for a loan.
299	Impunity	Exemption from punishment or freedom from the consequences.	He thought his wealth allowed him to act with impunity.
300	Inadvertent	Not resulting from or achieved through deliberate planning.	An inadvertent mistake.